Re: An Invitation to Present a Paper at the Annual Philosophy Conference, at Binghamton, NY, USA

Dear Professor Acikoz

Greetings from the USA. It was a pleasure to meet you in Turkey. I hope that we shall have the opportunity to establish academic liaisons among our organization and your university.

I am pleased to inform you that our program committee have approved of the following paper submitted for our conference:

"Skepticism in the Philosophies of Sextus Empiricus and Gazzali"

Here are some of the specifics about our conference:

1. Date: October 27-29, 2000
2. Place: Binghamton University, State University of New York at Binghamton
3. Specifics of our participation:

- (a) Present a 20 minute scholarly paper
- (b) Participate in a workshop on International Perspectives in Philosophy
- (c) Meet a number of scholars and officers of academic institutions to form liaison among Mugla University and US institutions.

Please see [www site for additional information]

I hope that you can attend our meetings so we have the pleasure of your company, the benefits of your scholarship and Cooperation for international liaisons.
